Articles of a Treaty made and concluded by and between Lieutenant General William T Sherman, General William S Harney, General Alfred H Terry, General C.C. Augur, S.P. Henderson, Nathaniel G Taylor, John B.
Sanborn and Samuel F Tappan, duly appointed Commissioners on the part of the United States and the different Bands of the Six Nations Indians by their Chiefs and Head men whose names are hereunto subscribed, they being duly authorized to act in the premises.

Article 1 From this day forward all war between the parties to this agreement shall forever cease. The Government of the United States desires peace and its honor is hereby pledged to keep it. The Indians desire peace and they now pledge their honor to maintain it.

If bad men among the whites or among other people, subject to the authority of the United States, will commit any wrong upon the persons or property of the Indians, the United States will, upon proof made to the Agent, and forwarded to the War Department at Washington City, immediately cause the offenders to be arrested and punished according to the laws of the United States and also reimburse the injured person for the loss sustained.

If bad men among the Indians shall commit a wrong or depredation upon the persons or property of any one, white black or Indian, subject to the authority of the United States and if per hence, the Indians here named, solemnly agree that they
